

JURISDICTION OF THE ND ETHICS COMMISSION

(NDAC 115-02-01-02)

WHAT KIND OF COMPLAINTS DOES THE NDEC HAVE AUTHORITY TO INVESTIGATE?

NDEC HAS AUTHORITY

NDEC HAS NO AUTHORITY

NDEC HAS NO AUTHORITY

Complaints against lobbyists, public officials, candidates for statewide public office, candidates for state legislative assembly, an elected or appointed official of the state's executive or legislative branch, members of the ethics commission, members of the governor's cabinet, or employees of the legislative branch.

- Personnel matters or matters for which other remedies exist.
- These matters include, but are not limited to, grievances, appointments, promotions, reprimands, suspensions, dismissals, harassment, discrimination, open meetings violations, and open records violations.

- City, county, or other political subdivision or local officials.
- Employees of the state's executive branch.
- Members or employers of the state's judicial branch.