Dear Ms. Binstock,

I received your letter of March 4, 2024, requesting recently discovered documents from this office. Those documents are the subject of a federal search warrant and constitute evidence in a joint federal and state criminal investigation. As a result, the documents cannot be released at this time, regardless of N.D.C.C. § 44-04-18.10(5). However, this office will be happy to provide the documents to the Ethics Commission as soon as possible. I am sure you understand the importance of protecting the integrity of federal prosecutions and ensuring justice for crime victims.

Sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in blue ink, which appears to read "Drew H. Wrigley", is written over the typed name and title.

Drew H. Wrigley
Attorney General
