Re: Complaint Nos. 22-003 – 22-010 Request for Information

Dear Mr. Mohanty:

The North Dakota Ethics Commission is conducting an investigation into complaints related to the lease and renovation of property located at 1720 Burlington Drive in Bismarck, North Dakota by the Office of Attorney General. At this time, the Ethics Commission respectfully requests information from your department to continue its investigation. The authority of the Ethics Commission for requesting documentation and data lies under N.D.C.C. § 54-66-08(3).

The Ethics Commission specifically requests any and all email communications from January 2016 to March 2022 within the accounts of the following individuals that relate to: (1) Representative Jason Dockter, C.J. Schorsch, Stealth Properties, LLC, or Parkway Property Management, LLC; (2) the lease and renovation of the building located at 1720 Burlington Drive, Bismarck, North Dakota; (3) Senate Bill 2003 from the 66th Legislative Assembly in 2019; and (4) House Bill 1003 from the 67th Legislative Assembly in 2021. The individuals are:

- Former Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem
- Former Deputy Attorney General Troy Seibel

Pursuant to N.D.C.C. § 54-66-12(1), this request for documents, data, and any other information you provide is a confidential record as defined in N.D.C.C. § 44-04-17.1. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact my office at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Binstock
Executive Director, North Dakota Ethics Commission
