I have attached some documents for your reference. The first document is the settlement agreement for the Marvin Darius property. William Huschka and Don Fennwald owned the building. Don passed away and that is why they were selling the building. The BD part of the BDJ partnership is those two individuals. I don't know where the J comes from in the partnership. Daniels Companies had the listing and could probably shed some light on the third partner. I also attached two documents that reference the century code that I mentioned in the meeting. These codes define what a principal or agent can do on a transaction on behalf of an agency. Let me know if you have any other questions.

Best Regards,

Jason Dockter
