Good afternoon Monte,

Yes, thank you for your question. The requested information will help the Ethics Commission determine the basis of Representative Dockter's potential conflict of interest when he voted on legislation, and whether his financial interest was magnified by other circumstances and parties, namely the attorney general's office and increased costs due to COVID, outside Stealth Properties and Representative Dockter's control. No review to date has provided the full picture of the cost overrun, including the crucial final reconciliation of costs. If no final reconciliation of costs has occurred, we believe it is an important consideration. Commission staff has a duty to provide our commissioners with the complete picture, to the extent we can, before they consider any ethical violations that may have occurred.

I hope this answers your question. Please let me know if you have any additional ones.

Because this email is related to an Ethics Commission investigation, it is a confidential record pursuant to N.D.C.C. §§ 54-66-12(1) and 44-04-17.1.

Thank you,
Logan
